

Hervé Guider,

General Manager

European Association of Co-operative Banks (EACB)

Hervé Guider became in 2001, General Manager of the European Association of Cooperative Banks, located in Brussels.

Graduate in Finance and Economics, he started his career in a regional bank and subsequently was appointed Head of the European Affairs at the National Association of Crédit Agricole in Paris. He joined the EACB in 1995 as deputy Secretary General and was involved in different committees set up by the European institutions related to the introduction of the euro. He was member of the Groupeuro, a network set up by the European Commission responsible for the communication campaign of the single currency.

Hervé is also a member of various European bodies such as the European Payments Council, COGEPS (Contact Group on Euro Payments Strategy), Executive committee of the European Banking Industry Committee, and was a former member of the supervisory board of the European Financial Reporting Advisory Group (EFRAG). He is also founder and chairman of the Think Tank on Co-operative Banks and a Board member of Cooperative Europe and member of ICBA (Independent Community Bankers of America).

Hervé Guider is author of a number of articles regarding cooperative banks in Europe and he is regulatory invited as a guest speaker in Business Schools and universities. In 2009 he co-wrote a book entitled 'La banque Cooperative en Europe'.