

Piet Moerland

Chairman of the Executive Board of Rabobank Nederland
President of the European Association of Co-operative Banks (EACB)

Member of the Executive Board of Rabobank Nederland (since 2003) Piet Moerland (1949) is an authoritative scholar (corporate finance and corporate governance) and banker. He graduated cum laude with a degree in Business Economics from Erasmus University Rotterdam.

His dissertation was recognised with the quadrennial Winkler Prins Award in 1982. Piet Moerland was appointed a member of the Executive Board of Rabobank Nederland in 2003. Prior to this appointment he served as a member of the Advisory Board (2000-2003), a member of the Board of Directors (1987-2000) and a member of the Board of Supervision (1984-1987).

Moerland served as a professor for nearly 25 years in succession at Groningen (Business Administration) and Tilburg (Corporate Finance). He has also held various supervisory directorships throughout his career.

Moerland is currently a member of the Advisory Board of the Netherlands Order of Accountants and Administration Consultants and member of the Board of Directors of the Netherlands Bankers' Association (NVB). Moerland is also president of the Executive Committee of the European Association of Co-operative Banks (EACB/Groupement) and a member of the Board of Directors of the International Raiffeisen Union (IRU).