

Danièle Nouy,

Secretary General of the French Prudential Supervisory Authority

1974	Joined Banque de France
1976-1985	Banking Supervisory Commission (previous name of the French Banking Commission)
1985-1986	Representative of the Banque de France in New York
1986-1987	Foreign Department of Banque de France in charge of research work on Euromarkets
1987-1996	Back to Banking Commission as Head of the Research Department and Policy Group (1987-1990); Director of Financial Institutions Supervision (1990-1994); Director, Associate to the General Secretary of Commission Bancaire, French member of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision
1996 - 1998	Deputy Secretary General of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision
1998 - 2003	Secretary General of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision
2003 - 2010	Secretary General of the French Banking Commission (and Chair of the Committee of European Banking Supervisors – CEBS, between January 2006 and January 2008)
9-03-2010	Secretary General of the French Prudential Supervisory Authority

59 years old, married, two daughters (35 and 29 years old)