

Philippe Pelle,

Deputy head of the Company Law, Corporate Governance and Financial Crime Unit in DG Internal Market and Services

A qualified chartered accountant, Philippe Pellé, is deputy head of the Company Law, Corporate Governance and Financial Crime Unit in DG Internal Market and Services since 2004. Previously, he held a similar position in the department in charge of financial reporting policy. Prior to joining the European Commission, Philippe worked in auditing and investment banking in Paris. Philippe studied business, finance, accounting and international relations in Marseilles, London and Brussels.